

UPDATE: FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN

January 14, 2019

The Santa Clara County Housing Authority will remain open and expects to continue normal business operations with no impact to program participants, property owners, vendors, and employees.

Sufficient funds are available to support Housing Authority operations through February 2019.

We will continue to monitor the situation in Washington, D.C. and provide updates as they become available.