The Housing Authority of the County of Santa Clara (HACSC)
will be offering Strive Scholarship awards for students pursuing higher education in Fall 2017!

Strive is a scholarship program encouraging career development through education for residents and participants of HACSC housing programs.

The Housing Authority of the County of Santa Clara (HACSC) is proud to recognize the efforts of hardworking students through our Strive Scholarship.

The Strive Scholarship is open to students whose families participate in HACSC's voucher programs or who reside in HACSC-affiliated properties.

Applications will be available at the Housing Authority office

and website (www.hacsc.org)

on April 1, 2017!
