STRIVE SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR HACSC TENANTS

The Housing Authority of the County of Santa Clara (HACSC) is now accepting applications for its Strive scholarship program. Strive was created to provide post-secondary educational financial assistance for Section 8 tenants or tenants of rental properties owned or affiliated with HACSC.

Strive scholarships will be awarded to graduating high school seniors, college students or returning students attending a university, community college or technical school on a full or part-time basis in fall 2016.

Qualified applicants must complete the Strive scholarship application, which includes an essay on long-term goals, a letter of recommendation and a copy of recent transcripts (unofficial transcripts are accepted). The transcripts requirement is waived for applicants who have been out of school for five or more years.

Click on the following links for Strive flyers in Spanish, Vietnamese and English and Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQ\) flyer.

The Strive application deadline is May 31, 2016 by 5:00 p.m. Completed applications with transcripts can be dropped off at the Housing Authority of the County of Santa Clara, Attn: Dhory Sison, 505 W. Julian St., San Jose, CA 95110. Or, email applications to StriveScholarship@hacsc.org. When emailing, place "Strive application" in the subject line.
